How do I request an American Airlines mileage plus copay upgrade?

The agent will calculate the exact number of rewards needed—typically 15,000 for domestic routes—alongside the mandatory 2026 cash portion which usually starts at $75. This human interaction ensures that the payment is processed securely and that your name is correctly placed on the priority list if an immediate seat isn't open. This professional service ensures you are not surprised by the 2026 price difference between a domestic hop and a flight to London or Tokyo this season.
