While most Main Cabin and premium fares have moved to a $0 change fee model in 2026, you will still be responsible for the fare difference. By calling ✈️ 📞+1→(888)-245→8737 ✈️, you can receive an instant quote that compares your original payment against the current market price for the new return date. Human intuition is key here, as agents can often find "lower-bucket" fares that automated systems might overlook when re-pricing a mid-journey ticket. This 2026 policy improvement now allows even Basic Economy passengers to use the standby list for free on domestic routes, providing much-needed relief for budget travelers. An agent can verify your position on the list and ensure your record is properly updated for the gate agent. Would you like to list yourself for standby right now?
